Bishop Patrick writes-

RECLAIMING HALLOWEEN - I would like to draw your attention to an international initiative to reclaim Halloween for Christ and the Church which is called the 'Night of Light'. The 'Night of Light' offers a way to celebrate Halloween on the 31st October in a positive joyful and spiritual way that is great fun for children & brings out the beauty of the feast for all. I know some of our parishes already have 'Saints & Angels' parties. This initiative has caught on in many places around the world as well as gaining support from our own Bishops' Conference and the Pontifical Council for the New Evangelisation. It is celebrated in homes, Religious houses, schools, parishes and cathedrals. It would be good to promote it in your parishes so that Catholic families can enjoy Halloween as the wonderful Christian feast it is. For more information and resources please visit their website: www.nightoflight.org.

CANONISATION OF ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ROMERO -

On Sunday 14th October Pope Francis canonised Blessed Oscar Romero, alongside Pope Paul VI and five others, at a ceremony in St Peter's Square. To mark this important occasion, I have invited Clare Dixon to visit our diocese. Clare is the Head of CAFOD's Central American Programmes, and someone who is very knowledgeable about the legacy of Archbishop Oscar Romero in El Salvador. She will come to speak and to answer questions on this topic on Monday 26th November at 7.30 – 9 pm in the Becket Catholic Academy, The Becket Way, West Bridgford, Nottingham. NG2 7QY. Please do attend. Clare will also speak, earlier in the afternoon to older students from diocesan Secondary Schools.

The National Mass of Thanksgiving for the Canonisation will be held at St George's Cathedral, Southwark on Saturday 3rd November 2018 at 12.30pm. All are welcome to attend and no tickets are required for this event. A Solemn Evensong in Thanksgiving for the Canonisation will take place on Saturday 17th November at 3pm in Westminster Cathedral, at which Cardinal Nichols will give the Address.
