TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY OF 2018

Sunday 7th October 2018

There has been a lot of Parish fundraising work going on recently. We have had the packing of the bags at Tesco, the Fizz Tea and the Auction.

There is more to come with the band concerts and the Christmas Fayre. Then there has been the fundraising events for those beyond our parish such as Missio, Cornerstone and the Glossop refuge.

These events are not just about raising money.

They bring people together in a sense of community, and help us work together in a spirit of co-operation.

This is the way it should be in Parish Life, and I Thank You for your love of the Church locally and globally. (FG)

You will have read about the Parish Memorial event for World War 1, Remembering those soldiers from both All Saints and St Mary Crowned Churches who died in that war.

If you would like to join the choir for this event we would welcome you at our rehearsals at All Saints meeting room 7.30 - 9pm on Friday 19th October, Friday 26th October and Friday 9th November. (FG)

Christmas is coming! – Our Planning meeting will be Saturday October 20th at 7.15pm in the presbytery. (FG)

LGBT Mass – Fr John Martin will celebrate Mass for the LGBT community within our Diocese on Saturday 3rd November at 1pm at Our Lady of Succour, Bulwell, Nottingham NG6 9ES (FG)

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. According to an account by fifteenth-century Dominican, Alan de la Roch, Mary appeared to St. Dominic in 1206 after he had been praying and doing severe penances because of his lack of success in combating the Albigensian heresy. Mary praised him for his valiant fight against the heretics and then gave him the Rosary as a mighty weapon, explained its uses and efficacy, and told him to preach it to others.

"Since the prayers of the Rosary come from such excellent sources — from Our Lord Himself, from inspired Scripture, and from the Church — it is not surprising that the Rosary is so dear to our Blessed Mother and so powerful with heaven.

"If we consider the power of the Rosary as seen in its effects, we find a great abundance of proofs of its wonderful value.

Many are the favours granted to private individuals through its devout recitation: there are few devoted users of the Rosary who cannot testify to experiencing its power in their own lives. If we turn to history, we see many great triumphs of the Rosary.

Early tradition attributes the defeat of the Albigensians at the Battle of Muret in 1213 to the Rosary. But even those who do not accept this tradition will admit that St. Pius V attributed the great defeat of the Turkish fleet on the first Sunday of October, 1571, to the fact that at the same time the Rosary confraternities at Rome and elsewhere were holding their processions. Accordingly, he ordered a commemoration of the Rosary to be made on that day. Two years later, Gregory XIII allowed the celebration of a feast of the Rosary in churches having an altar dedicated to the Rosary. In 1671, Clement X extended the feast to all Spain.

A second great victory over the Turks, who once, like the Russians, threatened the ruin of Christian civilization, occurred on August 5, 1716, when Prince Eugene defeated them at Peterwardein in Hungary. Thereupon Clement XI extended the feast of the Rosary to the whole Church.

"Today, when dangers far greater than those of the ancient Turks threaten not only Christianity but all civilization, we are urged by our Blessed Mother to turn again to the Rosary for help.

If we in sufficient numbers do this, and at the same time carry out the other conditions that she has laid down, we have the greater reason for confidence that we will be delivered from our dangers." -- Mary in our Life by Fr. William G. Most
